SUBJECT: CWFIA ANNUAL TRAINING CONFERENCE

The California Welfare Fraud Investigators Association (CWFIA) has scheduled its 22nd annual training conference for July 8 through July 10, 1992, at the Bahia Hotel, San Diego.

Although this is not a state sponsored organization, the training provided by CWFIA has been shown to be very beneficial in keeping local investigators informed and trained in the various techniques for preventing, detecting, and investigating welfare fraud.

I am, therefore, taking this opportunity to encourage the attendance of your county welfare fraud investigators at this conference. The costs of attendance are reimbursable subject to allocations and subvention rates. For those investigators who receive their agency's approval to attend, the costs of travel, per diem, and conference fees are claimable as allocable support costs on the administrative expense claim.

If you have any questions regarding this training conference, please contact Mr. Robert Meador, Chief Investigator of Solano county at (707) 553-5490.
